PROFILE

I'm a passionate coder with the ability to develop great applications & a keen interest in learning new technologies.

Fields like Web development & AI always interests me from the beginning.

I like thinking & creating algorithms that lead me to solve LeetCode (data structures and algorithms in c++).

PROJECTS

Weather App 🔗
- Build and crafted using React JS & Next JS, achieved a remarkable initial load time of around 950ms and subsequent refresh times of just 300ms, ensuring users experience smooth and seamless user interactions.
- Implemented methodologies like image quality adjustment, lazy loading, efficient data fetching and rendering techniques that results in a smooth user experience and a substantial 20% improvement in loading times with limited bandwidth or slower internet connections that helps load the app at internet speeds of as low as 20kb/s.
- Modern and elegant UI/UX with animations. Implemented charts with tooltip for better readability.
